oral steroids can sometime bring about stomachaches in some users, the most common being anapolon, stenox, primabolan, winstrol, and dianabol the goals of medical management include pain control and reduction in csf production i am myself a retired athlete that have seen my fellow teamates fail by the waistside in this second career world either provide your ehic or your german-issued health insurance card at admission i feel like they were all about the same and actually like the other one better it is the unit of issue for multiple dose items that are dispensed as one package it is a defense mechanism to help us cope with shock